ALL ACTIONS

Master File No. 12-cv-00280-SC

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted.

1 Among other things, the parties have requested or may request the production of information that
2 they in good faith believe to contain confidential, proprietary, or trade secret business
3 information, including (a) proprietary marketing materials, (b) confidential sales and financial 4 information, (c) information protected by confidentiality agreements with third-parties, and (d)
5 other nonpublic, sensitive information.

6 Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following
7 Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket 8 protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from 9 public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are the producing 10 party or non-party believes are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal 11 principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this 12 Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil 13 Local Rule 79-5 and General Order 62 set forth the procedures that must be followed and the 14 standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under 15 seal.

16 2. DEFINITIONS

17 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 18 information or items under this Order.

19 2.2 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is 20 generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule
21 of Civil Procedure 26(c).

22 2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as 23 well as their support staff).

24 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that 25 it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "CONFIDENTIAL."

26 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the 27 medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, 28

1 testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or 2 responses to discovery in this matter.

3 2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to 4 the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a 5 consultant in this action.

6 2.7 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House
7 Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

8 2.8 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal 9 entity not named as a Party to this action.

10 2.9 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this
11 action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this action
12 on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

13 2.10 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees,
14 consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

15 2.11 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery
16 Material in this action.

17 2.12 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services 18 (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and 19 organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and 20 subcontractors.

21 2.13 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 22 “CONFIDENTIAL.”

23 2.14 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 24 Producing Party.

25 3. SCOPE

26 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material
27 (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2)
28 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony,

1 conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.
2 However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following
3 information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a
4 Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as 5 a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the 6 public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party
7 prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who 8 obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating
9 Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

10 4. DURATION

11 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by 12 this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court
13 order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all 14 claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after 15 the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, 16 including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to 17 applicable law.

18 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

19 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party
20 or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must in good 21 faith take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the 22 appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of 23 material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions 24 of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are 25 not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.
26
27
28

1 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated
2 for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other
3 Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

4 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order
5 (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered,
6 Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so
7 designated before the Disclosure or Discovery Material is disclosed or produced.

8 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

9 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 10 excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing 11 Party affix the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains protected material. If only a 12 portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also 13 must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 14 margins).

15 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection 16 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which 17 material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all 18 of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the 19 inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party
20 must determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order.
21 Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the 22 "CONFIDENTIAL" legend to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or 23 portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 24 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

25 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that 26 the Designating Party identify on the record all protected testimony at the deposition, hearing, or 27 other proceeding, or within 20 days of receipt by the parties of the transcript of such testimony.

28 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any

1 other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the 2 container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend "CONFIDENTIAL."
 3 If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to 4 the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

5 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 6 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party's 7 right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a
 8 designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is 9 treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

10 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

11 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 12 confidentiality at any time.

13 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution
 14 process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis
 15 for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written 16 notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this 17 Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin 18 the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are 19 not sufficient) within 10 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging 20 Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and 21 the Designating Party must, upon good faith consideration of the Challenging Party's basis for 22 the challenge, explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to 23 the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first
 24 or establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process 25 in a timely manner.

26 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
 27 intervention, the Challenging Party shall file and serve a motion to challenge confidentiality under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5 and General Order 62, if applicable) within 21 days of the initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. In its response, the Designating Party shall set forth why the designated documents are confidential and will have the burden of persuasion. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph.

7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

(a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

(d) the court and its employees, and Special Masters or Mediators engaged for this action;

(e) court reporters and their staff;

(f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(g) during their depositions or at trial, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(h) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

1 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the 2 subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as 3 “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order
4 issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party
5 shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material –
6 and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving 7 Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

9 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS 10 LITIGATION

11 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-12 Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by Non-13 Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this 14 Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking 15 additional protections.

16 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 17 produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an 18 agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the 19 Party shall:

20 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party
21 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-22 Party;

23 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated
24 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific 25 description of the information requested; and 26 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 27 Non-Party.

28

(c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court.¹ Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the court.

¹ The purpose of this provision is to alert the interested parties to the existence of confidentiality rights of a Non-Party and to afford the Non-Party an opportunity to protect its confidentiality interests in this court.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the court in the future.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order, no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

12.3 Filing Protected Material. A party may file in the public record in this action any Protected Material with written permission from the Designating Party or a court order received after appropriate notice to all interested persons. If no written permission or court order is received, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5 and General Order 62. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5 and General Order 62, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) and General Order 62 is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by the court.

12.4 Non-admission: The designation of materials as "CONFIDENTIAL" is not admissible before any trier of fact and in no way implies that the party so designating the materials believes such materials are of any significance to this litigation. Neither this Order nor any stipulation therefore, nor any disclosure or use of information or documents, in whatever form, pursuant to this Order, shall be deemed an admission, waiver, or agreement by any party that any information or documents designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" hereunder is or is not a trade secret or confidential information for purposes of determining the merits of any claims

1 either party may have against one another or a third party. Neither this Order nor any stipulation
2 therefore shall be deemed to expand the scope of discovery in this action beyond the limits
3 otherwise prescribed by law, nor to enlarge the scope of discovery to matters unrelated to this 4 lawsuit. Furthermore, this Order shall not control the use of any evidence during the trial or any 5 hearing of this case. Nor shall anything herein preclude any party or non-party from seeking the 6 assistance of the Court in maintaining the confidential nature of any evidence that is presented at 7 hearing or trial.

8 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

9 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, and 10 upon written request by the Producing Party, each Receiving Party must return all Protected
11 Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, "all 12 Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format 13 reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is 14 returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing 15 Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline or 16 the written request by the Producing Party, whichever occurs later, that affirms that the Receiving 17 Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format
18 reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel 19 are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and 20 hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert
21 reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials
22 contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material
23 remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).
